HUNTER BRYANT OF WASHINGTON NAMED JOHN MACKEY TIGHT END OF THE WEEK

New York, N.Y. (September 17, 2019) – The John Mackey Award has named Hunter Bryant of Washington as the John Mackey Tight End of the Week. The Pac-12 Conference junior finished with five catches for 115 yards, including a 47-yard touchdown on the third play of the game in a win over Hawaii. Honorable mentions for this week include Ryan Luehrman of Ohio and Kyle Markway of South Carolina.

The 2019 John Mackey recipient will be announced on December 11, 2019 and then presented live on December 12, 2019 at The Home Depot College Football Awards Red Carpet Show on ESPN.

All future announcements can be found at www.johnmackeyaward.com, on our official Twitter account: @JohnMackeyAward and also on our official Facebook page: www.facebook.com/JohnMackeyAward.

The John Mackey Tight End of the Week is an honor distinct and different from the annual John Mackey Award. This weekly honor was started in 2004 to draw attention to individual play by Tight Ends during the active season. The Tight End of the Week acknowledgment does not have a direct bearing on the final John Mackey Award selection process. The John Mackey Tight End of the Week honor will run until the announcement of the eight Semi-Finalists.

The John Mackey Award is a member of the National College Football Awards Association (NCFAA) which encompasses the most prestigious awards in college football. The 25 awards boast 800 recipients, dating to 1935. Visit www.NCFAA.org to learn more about our story.
